

TRANSITION TO SPECIALTY PALLIATIVE CARE PRACTICE

Expressions of Interest 2025

Transition to Specialty Palliative Care Practice (TSP) – 2025

Coming to the Grampians Region

The TSP course is a partnership between Gippsland Region Palliative Care Consortium (GRPCC) Palliative Care South East (PCSE) and the Australian College of Nursing (ACN).

This TSP course is for registered nurses and is a combination of two online and four face to face workshops, as well as the online learning component and assessment, provided by ACN.

Participants with successful completion of all components of the course and assessments will be awarded one unit, the 'Principles of Palliative Care', towards a Graduate Certificate in Palliative Care at ACN or other universities.

Date: February 4 through to July 1, 2025

Requirements: Nurses will need to allow personal study time of approximately 5 hours per week, plus 6 study days to attend the workshops

Location: Ballarat

Cost: $2850 (TBC), payable before commencement of course

Applications: will be available in November. Please register your interest to attend by email at christine.hocking@grampianspalliativecare.com.au

Please note: there is no census date for withdrawal and refund in this course. Once accepted into the course, and fees paid, there is no refund.

Formal applications open: date to be notified

Scholarships: There are limited scholarships available to those in the Grampians region, contact Anna Gray at anna.gray@grampianspalliativecare.com.au

For further details regarding the course, please contact:

Carol Barbeler (carol.barbeler@wghg.com.au) at the GRPCC or Kelly Rogerson (Kelly.Rogerson@palliativecarese.org.au) at PCSE.